INSTITUTE OF TEXAN CULTURES SCHEDULES TOWN HALL MEETINGS

SAN ANTONIO - The Institute of Texan Cultures is actively engaged in a master planning process to study the way it currently serves the public and to envision the institution it could become in the next decade and beyond. The institute has scheduled three town hall meetings seeking input:

- 1:30 – 2:30 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 12 at the UTSA Main Campus, University Center Pecan Room (2.01.26), welcoming UTSA faculty
- 3:30 – 4:30 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 12, at the UTSA Main Campus, University Center Pecan Room (2.01.26), welcoming UTSA graduate students
- 3:30 – 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, Jan. 13, at the Institute of Texan Cultures Auditorium, welcoming the general public.

The institute's primary goal, as defined in UTSA's 2016 strategic plan, is to "preserve and present our history." The community's input in the master planning process will help chart the path the institute takes toward that goal. The town hall meetings will focus on these topics:

- How can UTSA adapt the mission of the museum to best accommodate today's audiences?
- What opportunities should the Institute of Texan Cultures provide for students?
- What services should the Institute of Texan Cultures provide to UTSA and the larger San Antonio and Texas communities?

If you would like to participate, please RSVP via e-mail, itcweb@utsa.edu. Use "ITC Town Hall" in the subject line and indicate number of guests. For additional information, call (210) 458-2300 or visit TexanCultures.com.
